

13th Annual Everglades Day
Saturday, February 11, 2012

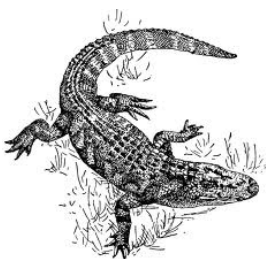

Mysteries of the Everglades

Be a Sherlock Holmes, Carmen Sandiego, even Scooby Doo!
at this all-day FREE family festival

- ◇ Seek out fish biology
- ◇ Solve insect riddles
- ◇ Discover live animals
- ◇ Canoe the Mystifying Everglades
- ◇ Uncover archaeology
- ◇ Find out what's Baffling about Bubo virginianus
- ◇ See Strange creatures from black lagoons

The Festival includes

Wildlife Presentations / Nature Walks / Fishing Demos / Birds of Prey / Music / Workshops /
Guest Speakers / Español Presentaciones / Over 30 Exhibitors / Food / Interactive Activities / Canoeing / Walking LILA Tours / Explorations / "Mystery Detective" Games for Kids

held at the Arthur R. Marshall Loxahatchee National Wildlife Refuge

U.S. 441/State Road 7 - 2 miles south of Boynton Beach Blvd.

Parking at Monte's Packaging 1/2 mile south of Refuge entrance. Free shuttle to/around the Refuge.

In partnership with the Friends of the Loxahatchee NWR, the Audubon Society of the Everglades, the U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service, Palm Beach County Cultural Council, PBC Commission, and the Palm Beach Post

For more information contact the Loxahatchee National Wildlife Refuge at 561-734-8303